Schild is the editor of two websites: www.StatLit.org and www.NNN-US.org.

Schild's StatLit website is big: 75 web pages, 1,630 pdf files, 1,137 images, and 13,115 hyperlinks.
Milo is the owner, editor, programmer and webmaster. He handles all aspects of the website single-handedly. During 2017, he added 81 files to the StatLit.org website.

Schild did all this in addition to teaching a full six-course load during the school year with no student assistants, teaching an online-course during the summer, teaching two new-prep courses (one in spring; the other in fall) and writing new chapters in his textbook.
